Plaintiff, a Nevada state prisoner proceeding pro se, filed a civil rights action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiff was sent a notice that he had not paid the filing fee or submitted a complete application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”). A copy of the Court’s form for applications to proceed IFP was provided with the notice. He was provided twenty-eight days to correct these deficiencies. More than twenty-eight days has passed, and plaintiff has not paid the fee or filed a complete application to proceed IFP. The case is DISMISSED without prejudice. Plaintiff’s miscellaneous motion (Dkt. No. 5) is difficult to understand and DENIED as meritless and moot. If plaintiff wishes to initiate a court case regarding prison conditions at his Nevada prison, he must file a case in the District of Nevada. He may file a federal habeas petition challenging his conviction after he has exhausted his claims in state court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
